Villas

„Delivering Spa & Luxury since 1897“

VILLA SAVOY

This stately building is a dominant of the whole resort and its elegance and unique architectonic composition has been attracting hotel guests since 1897. There is a total of 34 rooms available in the 4-storey Savoy villa, including the most prestigious and luxurious ones – the Presidential Suite and the Savoy Suite. On the ground floor of the building there are two hotel restaurants and bar. The Savoy villa is interconnected with the Spa Afrodite balneo center through an underground corridor.

VILLA ARTEMIS

The villa Artemis was built in 1875. It is situated in the middle of a raised garden terrace in the heart of the whole resort. Like all other buildings, the Artemis villa is interconnected to the Spa Afrodite balneo center. The Artemis villa offers only 6 rooms. The more it emphasizes the ultimate privacy the villa provides to its guests. The villa rooms - majority of them being spacious apartments with their own kitchenettes – come with their own private parking places.

VILLA CARLTON

The Carlton villa also dates back to the year 1897 and it is situated in a small courtyard at the end of a palm tree alley. The villa offers 26 rooms. The whole 2nd and 3rd floors of the building consist of rooms that are classified as Suite and Junior Suite and that can also be used as an Executive Floor. The Carlton villa is also directly connected to the Spa Afrodite balneo center, thus providing all possible luxury and comfort even to the most demanding clientele.

VILLA KLEOPATRA

Like Carlton, the five-storey building of the villa Kleopatra dates back to the year 1897 and is situated at the end of a palm tree alley. On the right-hand side it neighbors on the Savoy villa with which it is interconnected through a glazed corridor. There is the total of 31 rooms in the Kleopatra villa. Most of them are west-oriented and afford a beautiful view of the Russian church.

VILLA RUSALKA

The Rusalka villa was built in 1897 at the end of the garden terrace. All of its four floors on which rooms are situated project above the level of the terrace. The villa offers 19 rooms and is closely connected to the Spa Afrodite balneo center with which it is interconnected by an elevator.
